

Michael Fellman (left) Director of the Graduate Liberal Studies Program at Simon Fraser University, stands with Associate Professor of History Mark Grimsley, organizer of the Graduate Workshop on the History of Armed Coercion on Nov. 7, 2005, at the Mershon Center for International Security Studies. Fellman spoke on “Redemption Through Blood: The White Line Terrorist Movement in Mississippi, 1875”